Norwich Charities.

At the board of trade meeting at Buckingham Memorial Tuesday evening the subject to be considered is "The Charities of Norwich." There will be addresses by Rev. Charles A.
Northrop, A. W. Lillibridge and Frederick Synge, with buffet refreshments and social hour.

POLLS.

At Polls today and for three days will be seen, of the city of Norwich, the bill of the season. Headlined on the bill are: Madden & Fitzpatrick, sketch entitled "The Turn of the Tide." This is an act which has good woe-some comedy, a touch of pathos, which reaches the heart of the audience. The use of a piano on the stage adds to the interest of the act. Mr. Madden has an act on the stage, "Ward, Klare & Ward" are seen in a farce comedy entitled "The Twin Flats." In this act there is much singing and they always leave the audience laughing with their burlesque imitation of Love Me and the World is Mine. Duff and Walsh offer a straight dancing act that should meet with instant approval, as both are dancers of excellence. Well known singing act also on the bill is Johnston & Tally.
Mr. Tally was until recently with the world famous Empire City quartette.
An act that is sure to keep the audience in roars of laughter is Keno, Welsh & McNamee, who will be seen in a rough house comedy acrobatic novelty. They do a number of clever tricks, while everything is turned to comedy. Dillon will be here again this week, using as his subject "The Man Without a Country."

Strong Comedy Bill at the Auditorium

The management of the Auditorium has secured for this week an act which is without a doubt the greatest comedy bill ever placed on a stage.
The Laughing Horse is the name of the feature. Empire City quartette, Groves, Milton & Perry. The whole act is a screaming travesty on a small circus, two special acts, scenery, representing both inside and outside of a circus tent, being carried with this act. It is guaranteed to be the finest act ever seen in the city.
For those that like something a little heavier, Katherine Henry and Eugene West will present the comedy act play, "Live and Let Live." The story told is one that is both strikingly original and of profound interest. It is done with such skill, and the acting theatrical life. Von Moltke and Frank, another comedy act, and Marie & Victor, comedienne and comedian, the balance of the bill for the first three days.

An entirely new set of independent pictures will be on hand for Monday.

Fair by North Stonington Grange.

The management of the North Stonington grange has decided that the fair shall be open two days, September 21 and 22. The extension of the fair was made at the request of exhibitors, and because the wide interest taken in the enterprise made it appear that one day would not give time enough to do justice to exhibits.
C. P. Kendall, secretary of the fair, is receiving numerous applications for space. The management is particularly pleased that owners of livestock and poultry are giving their hearty co-operation, and that the exhibits in these departments promise to be exceptionally good. There will be having contests for oxen and horses, and amusement of various kinds, including athletic games.
The site of the fair is in North Stonington village, on the line between the trolley station at Avery's Crossing and that at North Stonington village.

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bloomdale, Ohio. "I suffered from terrible headaches, pains in my back and right side, and was tired all the time and nervous. I could not sleep, and every month I could hardly stand the pain. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health again and made me feel like a new woman.
I hope this medicine will help other women to avail themselves of this valuable medicine."—Mrs. E. M.
FREDERICK, Bloomdale, Ohio.

Backache is a symptom of female weakness or derangement. If you have backache, don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Nothing we know of will do this so safely and surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Cure the cause of these distressing aches and pains and you will become well and strong.

The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has restored health to thousands of women.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be treated as strictly confidential, and the advice free.
